

ABOUT OUR BOARD & CONTRIBUTORS

GATEWAY & THE WETUMPKA IMPACT CRATER COMMISSION

Dennis G. Fain Wetumpka Gateway Development Corporation Treasurer & Secretary

Dennis G. Fain is a retired Certified Public Accountant having worked for the same accounting firm, Jackson Thornton, a regional accounting firm in Alabama for 43 years. Thirty-Three of those years having served as a principal in the firm and was the managing director for the local Wetumpka, Alabama office location.

Dennis is a native of Wetumpka and has worked on several nonprofit boards in the community. Currently Dennis serves on the Main Street Wetumpka board as Secretary / Treasurer which is an organization charged with assisting the downtown Wetumpka business district with its revitalization efforts. Dennis also serves as the Treasurer of the Wetumpka Gateway Development Corporation board which was created in 2012 and organized for the purpose of being dedicated to public use project development and operations focusing on the exhibition and teaching of universal and geologic scientific information relating to the Wetumpka Coastal Impact Crater as well as the human, natural and geologic history associated with the River Region and surrounding area. Dennis also serves as a volunteer lecturer to middle school children at Jasmine Hill Gardens for school tours wanting to learn more about the history of the Impact Crater and the historical significance to the area.

