

ABOUT OUR BOARD & CONTRIBUTORS

GATEWAY & THE WETUMPKA IMPACT CRATER COMMISSION

Kevin Reuter

WICC Chairman & Wetumpka Gateway Development Corporation Board Member

Mr. Kevin Reuter is Chief of Curriculum and Academic Programs for Air Force JROTC. The program has 870 Air Force Junior ROTC units in high schools world-wide. There are more than 125,000 high school cadets in the program and more than 1,900 retired USAF instructors who lead, mentor, guide, and teach in high schools in the U.S. and around the world. Additionally, he is also functions as the Chief of Technology Integration for ROTC and JROTC supporting academic programs at 2,140 global locations. Kevin spent 23 years on active duty in the USAF and has held a variety of positions in adult education, and instructional systems design retiring in 2003. He holds a MS, Instructional Systems Design from Touro University, CA (2005); MBA from Troy University, AL (1992); and a BS in Industrial Engineering from Southern Illinois University, IL (1990).

Kevin functions as the current Chairman for the Wetumpka Impact Crater Commission, webpage maintainer, and publicity. He has been with the crater commission since 2018 educating Wetumpka visitors and residents about the Wetumpka Impact Crater, one of the